Special to The News

BRIDGETON – Come join the Cumberland County Library reading club, with stories, crafts, exercise, good manners and more on Tuesday evenings and some Saturdays in January and February.

On Tuesday evenings, from 6:30 to 7:15 p.m., the program is for children ages 3–8, and from 7:30 to 8:15 p.m. the program is for children ages 9–14.

On Jan. 13, parental involvement in learning continues with another program from the grant money provided by the Prevent Child Abuse in New Jersey organization.

Funding purchased educational games, and this night will be game night.

Games will be on display, along with books from the collection for use by all the participants of all ages.

Arrive at 6:30 p.m. to see the newest additions to the learning library.

During January, the connection between books and movies will be explored.

Several recent movies based on books have come out, and they will be discussed depending on the age of the children.

On Jan. 20, at 6:30 p.m., "The Snowman" will be read, followed at 7:30 p.m. when the older readers will discuss "Twilight."
