Written by Nanette Knaster

Friday, 20 March 2009

MIDDLETOWN, NJ - April is Child Abuse Prevention Month and Middletown Main Library is partnering with Prevent Child Abuse-New Jersey (PAC) for the 'Pinwheels for Prevention' campaign. PAC's goals are to prevent abuse and neglect, and to promote healthy parent-child interactions through early reading, constructive play, and other educational programs.

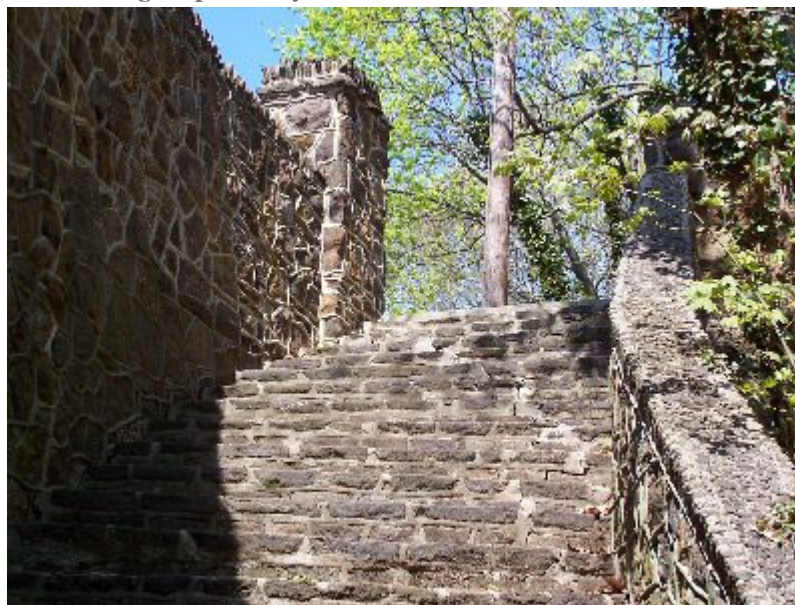

Pinwheels – symbols of a happy, carefree childhood -- will be distributed to children and adults to 'plant' in the library's front garden during April. For more information please see the staff at the Children's Desk or call 732-671-3700 x320..

Middletown Main Library is located at 55 New Monmouth Rd. – www.mptl.org – 732-671-3700.
