

June 12

Riding to prevent child abuse: Bikers across New Jersey will unite to participate in a statewide motorcycle run escorted by the NJ State Police to benefit child abuse prevention and join thousands of motorcyclists across the nation in honor of a 2 year-old child who was murdered and raped. The Katelynn Stinnett Memorial Run will start bikers at four points in Ledgewood, Lakewood, Burlington and Highland Park for a "kick-stands up" launch at 12 p.m. and meet at Docks Corner Tavern in Monroe Township for an afternoon BBQ. Registration for the event will take place at four start points across the state from 9:30 to 11:30 a.m. The Ledgewood start will be held at Legends Harley Davison in Route 46, the Lakewood registration will be held Ocean County Harley Davidson on Route 70, the Burlington start will take place at Mills Harley Davidson on Tyler Street, and the Highland Park start will be at Highroads Harley Davidson on Woodbridge Avenue. Ride donation is $15 per rider, $5 per passenger (participating in ride). The first 200 riders to pre-register will receive free ride patch.
