

Kidsbridge, the CYO of Mercer County and Prevent Child Abuse of NJ celebrate their partnership with some of the graduates of this year's conflict resolution program at the CYO's summer day camp. Youth worked weekly to address and enhance their conflict resolution skills. The program was funded by PSE&G. Pictured above is one of four participating groups along with PSE&G Public Affairs Manager Frank Lucchesi on the left and Tom Mladenetz, executive director of the CYO on the right.

