

Meadowlands Stadium event helps 'tackle' child abuse

Prevent Child Abuse-New Jersey is calling citizens across the state to help tackle child abuse at NJ's Elegant Tailgate Party being held at The New Meadowlands Stadium on May 4 at 6:30 p.m. to raise funds to end child abuse and support prevention programs across the state. This unique event, located at the West Gate Club on the stadium's 50-yard line, will offer food and spirits, entertainment, a gift auction, and stadium tours. Dr. Randal Pinkett will serve as master of ceremonies.

Tickets for the event are $200, and include a guided tour introducing guests to private locations throughout the new stadium, including the Giants Legacy Room, the press room, and the opportunity for a stroll onto the players' field. Tickets can be purchased online at www.preventchildabusej.org or by calling (732) 246-8060. Businesses and individuals may also help support the event through sponsorship or ad placement in the video journal being presented on the stadium's jumbotron. The following companies have already signed on as sponsors of this event — PNC Bank, Prudential Financial, PSE&G, US Retirement Partners, Wolff & Samson, and Verizon.

All proceeds from the event benefit Prevent Child Abuse-New Jersey, a nonprofit organization working to end child abuse. The organization is working in all 21 counties of the state to ensure that all children are safe, healthy, nurtured and encouraged to learn. For more information, visit www.preventchildabusej.org.

