

PARENT LINKING PROGRAMS

HELPING GENERATIONS OF NJ's CHILDREN of expectant and parenting teen participants GRADUATE. In comparison to 40% of teen parents on a national average.

90%

90%

of participant graduates enroll in a higher learning institute.

95%

of participants DID NOT have a 2nd pregnancy while in high school. In comparison to a national average of 25% of teen moms who have a 2nd child within 2 years.

721

students utilized these programs within the past 3 years! This program is 40 years old! On average 240 students use these programs every year!

94+

children ages 0-3 used the Parent Linking Program childcare just last year!

468

groups were held last year for teen parents to learn about child development, parenting, healthy relationships, and life skills. Information that is essential to healthy generations.

Participant Ratings:

Out of 5

Individual Sessions	4.8
Home Visits	4.1
Relationship w/ Child Caregivers	4.2
Group Topics	4.6
Relationship w/ Case Managers	4.7
OVERALL	4.9

Participant Sayings:

“I love the PLP program. When I got pregnant at 15, I thought my life was over but they helped me pull through it. Now I’m graduating and am doing better than ever!”

“Gave me more information and insight proving to me I can be the best mom.”