

EXPOSING EXPLOITATION

SCHOOL ASSEMBLY

"This is very useful and it should be mandatory to have this event. It is very informational and helpful. It can help a lot of people." -Student 99.6% of students surveyed said they would recommend this program to other students.

This interactive presentation is ideal for a group of students or school community to educate them about the realities of commercial sexual exploitation here in NJ and encourage them to take action to end child sex trafficking. This presentation is filled with activities, videos, and audience participation to keep youth engaged. Presentation is typically 1 – 2 hours.
